

ICOR Resolution

28 January 2021

Solidarity against the brutal anticommunist wave of repression in the Philippines

For 52 years, the revolutionary movement in the Philippines, led by the Communist Party of the Philippines (CPP), has been waging the justified struggle for national and social liberation. The proto-fascist Duterte regime in the Philippines takes action against it with increasing terror, denouncing and defaming the liberation organizations and their representatives as "terrorist", assassinating leading representatives, killing and persecuting activists of the human rights, women's and youth movements, as well as trade unionists. With terrorist methods and an increasing fascistization of the state apparatus, the Duterte regime seeks to suppress the outbreak of a general societal crisis. However, in the Philippines too, the world economic and financial crisis is intensifying in interrelation with the corona crisis, and the masses' search for a genuine societal alternative is growing.

Defaming the liberation struggle as terrorist is anticommunist and criminalizes the liberation struggle, that has been being waged in the Philippines for five decades, and the armed resistance of the Filipino people.

Duterte came into office declaring a supposed war on drugs, which has led to over 30,000 illegal killings and tens of thousands more arrests under this misleading banner. The Duterte administration attempts to suppress the liberation movements with these counter-revolutionary methods and to silence them. Just before the end of 2020, in coordinated action, nine activists of the indigenous population were bloodily murdered in the city of Capiz and seven trade unionists were arrested. Soon after his taking over office, Duterte announced peace negotiations with the NDFP, but these were terminated in 2017, and instead they began to kill communists in massive numbers. Increased international solidarity against this aggressively anticommunist repression is urgently required.

- ICOR condemns the anticommunist denigration of the Philippine liberation struggle, the CPP and NDFP, as terrorist.
  - It demands that the Philippine government ceases its violent repression of the liberation struggle in violation of international law!
  - It calls for the international condemnation of the Duterte regime and
  - Removal of the organizations CPP and NPA (New Peoples Army) from the terror lists of the U.S., EU, Australia, New Zealand and the United Kingdom.
  - Resumption of peace negotiations between the Philippine government and the NDFP.
  - We call for worldwide solidarity with the struggle of the Filipino people for national and social liberation!
